

KENSINGTON GROUP

...Spiral & Curved Stairs, Balconies and Handrails

About Kensington Group

The Kensington Group consists of the following divisions:

- Kensington Spirals
- Kensington Grande Forge
- Kensington Architectural Metalwork

The Kensington brand name is synonymous with product excellence and quality. The company's record of customer satisfaction extends over a 15-year period with repeat specification from architects, interior designers, house builders and metalworkers forming the major part of their business.

Kensington's technical department is available to offer advice on such matters as Building regulations, appropriate styles and sizes. For those seeking to install staircases, working drawings form an integral part of the quotation package.
